Duties

The incumbent will provide legal services as required to assist grants officers and program officials on all aspects of the development and implementation of financial assistance programs, including administrative, funding, and environmental compliance matters. The incumbent provide a creative, independent ability to analyze grants and cooperative agreement issues, and be able to prepare written legal guidance and oral counseling, often on short notice, to grants officers and program officials on complex and often novel legal issues.

In addition to providing counsel for Department's financial assistance officials, the incumbent must provide creative, timely and effective legal guidance on a variety of assistance issues. related to federal assistance policy procedures, such as interpretation and implementation of OMB's Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The selected applicant will provide recommendations concerning federal assistance procedures and regulations for implementing new or amended legislation. The incumbent will also ensure that financial assistance policies, procedures, and regulations are in compliance with federal regulation and law and administratively sound, efficient, and economical in operation.

Requirements

Conditions of Employment

- You must be suitable for Federal employment.
- You must be a U.S. citizen.
- You must be registered for Selective Service if applicable (www.sss.gov).

- Must complete a 2-year trial period.
- If selected, you will be required to complete OGE Form 450, Confidential Financial Disclosure.

Security Clearance: If selected, you will undergo a Non-critical Sensitive, Moderate Risk clearance background investigation, and that clearance level must be maintained.

Qualifications

Basic requirement for all grade levels:

1. You must be a graduate with a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree or equivalent from an accredited law school; AND

2. You must have bar membership in one of the 50 states, Washington, DC, Puerto Rico or the US. Virgin Islands.

Minimum Requirements:

For GS-13: Applicants applying at the GS-13 grade level must have two years of legal experience or relevant professional experience (legal or non-legal). Relevant non-legal professional experience could include, for example: experience as an International Program Specialist with the Commercial Law Development Program (CLDP) when applying for a CLDP attorney position; or experience as an Employee Relations Specialist when applying for an Employment Law position. Likewise, experience in a non-attorney position within the Department, with resulting insight into the client's mission could warrant a higher grade, as could non-legal experience in regulated industry. When relying on non-legal professional experience, hiring managers must articulate in writing how the cited experience enhances the applicant's skills to warrant the higher grade.

For GS-14: Applicants applying at the GS-14 grade level requires at least three years of legal experience & on the rare occasion, two years of relevant legal experience may, in the opinion of the General Counsel or his or her designee.

Note: The General Counsel or designee retains the discretion to waive minimum qualifications as described above.

The ideal candidate would have:

- Working familiarity with federal assistance law, policy and procedures or experience with administrative legal areas, such as appropriations law or the administrative Procedures Act, that are frequently encountered in the context of implementing federal assistance programs. Applicants must demonstrate the ability to accurately identify and quickly analyze relevant and critical issues. Applicants must demonstrate a record of strong interpersonal skills, good judgment and exhibit the ability to work in a supportive and professional manner with other attorneys, support staff and client bureaus.

Applicants may be hired at any of the grades shown in this announcement, commensurate with the candidate's experience and qualifications. You are encouraged to identify the grade level(s) or salary for which you wish to be considered.

Experience refers to paid and unpaid experience, including volunteer work done through National Service programs (e.g., Peace Corps, AmeriCorps) and other organizations e.g., professional; philanthropic, religious; spiritual; community, student, social). Volunteer work helps build critical competencies; knowledge, and skills and can provide valuable training and experience that translates directly to paid employment. You will receive credit for all qualifying experience, including volunteer experience.

Education

Applicants must possess a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree or equivalent from an accredited law school. Official or unofficial transcripts must be submitted with your application package.

Additional information
Department Attorney-Advisor positions are in the Excepted Service. As such, these positions are not covered by the usual civil service hiring procedure. Additionally, this position does not confer non-competitive conversion to the competitive services. Acceptance of an excepted service appointment from applicants in the competitive service will require a written statement of understanding.

Benefits

How You Will Be Evaluated

You will be evaluated for this job based on how well you meet the qualifications above.

Applicants will be rated based on their education, experience, demonstrated legal research and writing abilities, and performance during the interview process.

Basis for evaluation: If eligible and meeting basic qualifications, your application package will be evaluated in conjunction with your résumé and supporting documents for the required knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs) to successfully perform the duties of this position:

1. Knowledge of research strategies and techniques sufficient to research complex legal issues. The issues research are almost always factually complex and are in areas of law which are often in a continual state of evolution, thus requiring atypical and innovative research strategies.

2. Ability to communicate effectively with diverse clients and constituencies on varied and complex topics in writing clearly, concisely and persuasively, with particular emphasis on the ability to analyze and explain complex legal issues.

3. Ability to communicate effectively orally with diverse clients and constituencies on varied and complex topics.

4. Ability to maintain effective working and reporting relationships with professional peers, support staff and management officials.

5. Ability to organize work effectively to meet established deadlines and priorities.

Please be advised that Department of Commerce Attorney positions are in the Excepted Service. As such, these positions are not covered by the usual civil service hiring procedures. You will be evaluated for this job based on how well you meet the qualifications stated herein. We will perform an initial review of applications to determine basic eligibility and minimum qualifications for the position and numeric scores will not be assigned.
There are no numerical rating systems through which to apply veterans preference; however, the Office of the General Counsel favorably considers veterans preference eligibility in hiring. Applicants eligible for veterans preference are encouraged to include that information in their cover letter or resume. If selected, additional information may be required.
